CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

I. MISSION

Under the direction of the National Security Council, it is the duty of the Central Intelligence Agency to advise on, and to make recommendations for the coordination of, intelligence activities relating to the national security, to correlate, evaluate and disseminate intelligence relating to the national security, to perform services of common concern to the intelligence agencies and to perform such other functions as may be directed.

II. FUNCTIONS

The Central Intelligence Agency shall perform the duties and functions prescribed by the National Security Act of 1947 (Sec. 102), together with such other duties and functions as may appropriately be assigned to it by competent authority. The Director of Central Intelligence is the head of the Central Intelligence Agency and is responsible for proper performance of the Agency's functions. In the performance of his duties, the Director shall exercise all powers inherent in the head of a department or agency of the Government.

In addition to his normal authorities as Director of Central Intelligence, the Director is charged with the carrying out of such specific statutory functions as are set forth in appropriate legislation.

DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

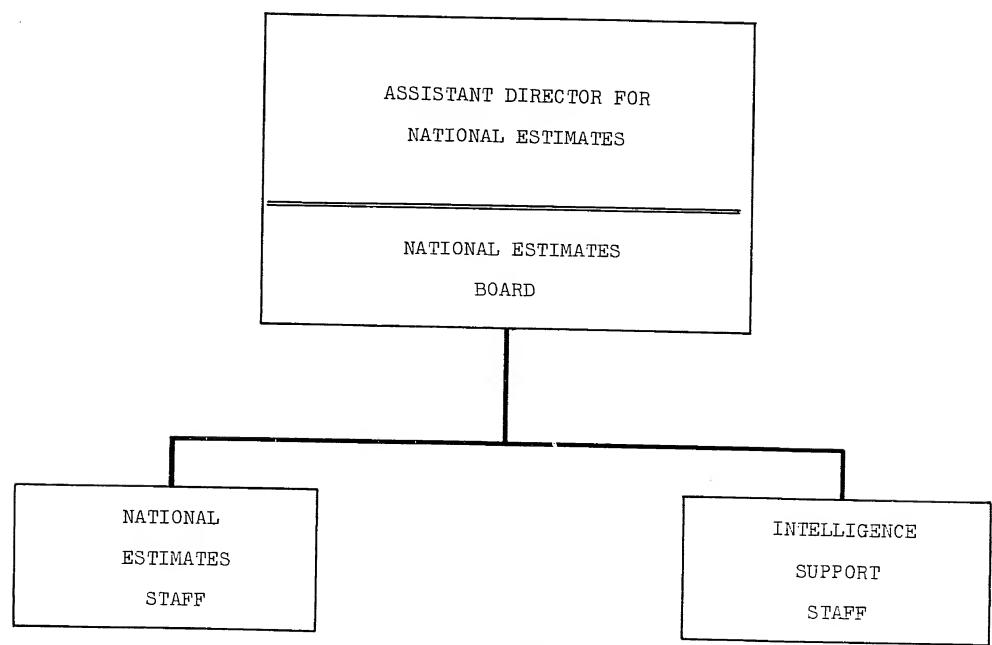

The Deputy Director of Central Intelligence is in charge of the production of intelligence by CIA and the coordination of the intelligence activities of the government, as prescribed by NSC Directives.

He will act as the Director of Central Intelligence in the absence of that official.

OFFICE OF NATIONAL ESTIMATES

I. MISSION

The Assistant Director for National Estimates is charged with (1) initiating, directing the production of, and producing national estimates, (2) evaluating current intelligence circulated by CIA outside the Agency and (3) assisting the Director of Central Intelligence in the coordination of intelligence relating to the national security and in providing for its appropriate dissemination.

II. FUNCTIONS

The general functions of the Assistant Director for National Estimates are two: (A) Estimative; (B) Coordinative.

A. Estimative Functions

1. Suggest to the Director of Central Intelligence amendments and additions to the schedule of priorities set by IAC and carry out any schedule of priorities as cleared by IAC to the extent of (a) alerting the IAC agencies to the accepted schedule of priorities and sudden changes which may be made therein, (b) assigning responsibilities within IAC agencies, (c) programming in consideration of the workload of the IAC agencies, and (d) setting and maintaining deadlines.

2. Initiate estimates: (a) by direction of the IAC or (b) by direction of the Director of Central Intelligence or his deputy, or (c) by his own decision pending clearance in CIA and/or IAC, or (d) at the suggestion of representatives of the IAC agencies pending clearance in CIA and IAC.
3. Direct the production of estimates through the establishment of appropriate interdepartmental arrangements. This will involve:
 - a. Drafting the terms of reference for any given estimate.
 - b. Calling a meeting of representatives of the IAC agencies concerned in the production of the estimate at hand.

OFFICE OF NATIONAL ESTIMATES (Cont.)

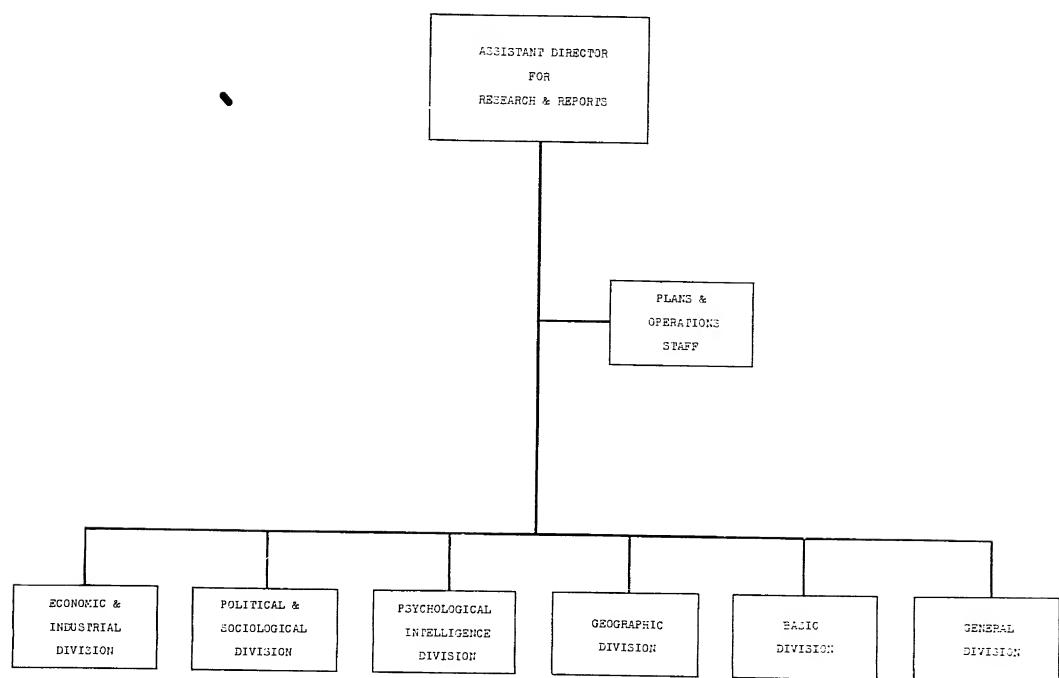

- c. Discussing and fixing at such meetings the final terms of reference.
- d. Assigning responsibility for substantive contributions from the IAC agencies.
- e. Assuming or assigning responsibility for the initial drafting of the estimate.
- f. Clearing the final draft with the contributing IAC agencies.
- 4. Produce national estimates. (This will involve taking responsibility for a final draft of any estimate to go forward to the Director of Central Intelligence and IAC even though disagreements among the contributing agencies cannot be resolved.)
- 5. Be responsible for all evaluative comment on items of current intelligence which are circulated by CIA outside the Agency. (It is assumed that responsibility for evaluations on Office of Special Operations raw intelligence will rest with the Office of Special Operations so long as the evaluations are confined to the probable reliability of the source.)
- 6. Direct the operation of a current intelligence staff which will support the above functions and which will continue the issuance of the Daily Summary.
- 7. Provide for oral briefings and presentation service for the Agency.

B. Coordinative Functions

- 1. Recommend to the Assistant Director for Intelligence Coordination on coordination matters relating to the production of national estimates.
